E-Bike Accidents Are Climbing

E-bike accidents surged from approximately 3,500 in 2017 to 34,200 in 2023

E-Bike Safety: Know the Risks

E-bikes are growing in popularity, but they also come with serious safety risks. Because they can travel up to 28 mph, crashes often cause more severe injuries than regular bike accidents. According to the Consumer Product Safety Commission, e-bike injuries rose 70% from 2017 to 2022, with over 46,000 emergency room visits reported in 2022 alone.

At Sargent Law Firm Injury Lawyers, we've also seen an increase in e-bike accident cases involving cars, pedestrians, and other cyclists. Common causes include speeding, poor visibility, and riders ignoring traffic laws.

To Ride Safely:

- Always wear a helmet and bright clothing.
- Use bike lanes when possible and follow all traffic rules and local regulations.
- Check your brakes and tires regularly.
- Use bike lights.
- Make sure kids are supervised and trained before riding.

Shared Roads, Shared Responsibility

E-bikes offer convenience, but bring new risks. Preventing accidents requires vigilance and mutual respect from both riders and drivers.

If you or someone you love has been injured in an e-bike crash, contact us for help.

What To Do After Car/Bike/Motorcycle Accident

1. Check for injuries – Ensure you're okay, then check on others.
 2. Move to safety – If possible, move vehicles out of traffic.
 3. Call 911 – Report the accident and request medical help if needed.
 4. Exchange info – Get names, contact info, insurance, license, and plate numbers.
 5. Document the scene – Take photos of vehicles, damage, and the scene.
 6. Talk to witnesses – Get their names and contact details.
 7. Avoid admitting fault – Don't blame or accept blame; stick to facts.
 8. File a police report – Cooperate with officers and request a copy.
 9. Notify your insurer – Report the accident ASAP.
 10. Seek medical attention – Get checked out as soon as possible.
 11. Contact Sargent Law Firm – Get a free case evaluation to understand your rights.
